DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

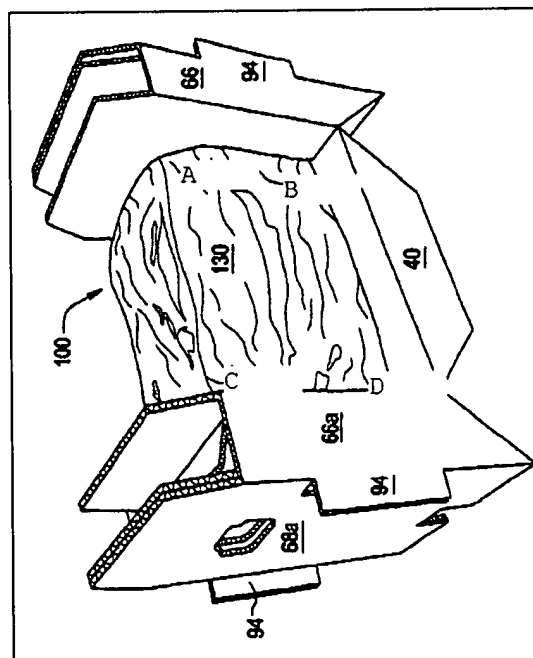

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims X are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kari (US 6,685,025).

Kari discloses a part, for example the casing of toner cartridge (100), which is for rotatably supporting one end of a developing roller. Process cartridges must include a sliding portion capable of rotatably supporting one end of a developing roller.

The toner cartridge has eight corners. Two of which, as indicated by B and D in the figure to the right, read on a plurality of receiving portions, which are disposed at position different from the sliding portion and are supported by a part, for example the folded insert, to the lower side of the part (100) when a plurality of parts are stacked.

Corners A and C shown in the figure read on a plurality of abutment portions which are disposed at positions different from the sliding portion and support a part adjacent, for example the folded insert, to the upper side when a plurality of parts are stacked.

The distance between A and C and B and D, respectively, is substantially the same. The top surface of the toner container reads on overlap portions that overlap a portion of the part adjacent, the folded insert, and the sliding portion does not come in contact with the part adjacent.

Regarding claim 12, the process cartridge, specifically the longitudinal side, is an end member of the developing roller.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 11 and 12 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Art Unit: 2852
